

MP Kelly attacked over Pell

By Don Pagé, 6 March 2019

Local Federal MP Craig Kelly has been accused of supporting a convicted child-molester, Catholic cardinal George Pell. A Liberal Party rival, Kent Johns, said that he was “disgusted” after a Facebook post by the Hughes MP questioned the verdict as a “grave miscarriage of justice”.

Those remarks had “hurt” victims, Nine News was told by Mr Johns, who is NSW party Vice President and a local councillor. “This case has victims of abuse reliving their trauma and this just causes more pain by questioning the justice system. It may make victims even more unlikely to come forward because they feel they won’t be believed... He should know better.”

MP Kelly’s stance echoed former prime ministers John Howard and Tony Abbott lately.

“The problem with his (Kelly’s) comment is that he is our representative in the Federal Parliament so he is supposed to speak for our community,” criticised Mr Johns, who challenged him for party preselection for the safe Liberal seat months ago.

Speculation was that Mr Johns, a moderate, had the numbers to topple the right-wing incumbent, but was trumped by Prime Minister Scott Morrison, who cancelled party preselections for all sitting MPs to avoid a civil war.

MP Kelly had threatened to quit and go to the parliamentary crossbenches if he was rolled, according to news reports then.

The member for Hughes borrowed from a prominent conservative Andrew Bolt for his Facebook post, in which the commentator claimed Pell had been “falsely convicted of sexually abusing two boys in their early teens”. [See Facebook below.]

BEYOND REASONABLE DOUBT ?

I'm not a Catholic and no doubt the church has covered up pedophile priests that deserve to burn in hell - but I agree with Andrew Bolt, as on the reports of the evidence, this seems a grave miscarriage of justice

Cardinal George Pell has been falsely convicted of sexually abusing two boys in their early teens.

That's my opinion, based on the overwhelming evidence.

And my opinion is also based in part on how many times Pell has been accused of crimes and sins he clearly did not do.

But at last some of the truckload of mud thrown at him has stuck.

It adds up to this: Pell, Australia's most senior Catholic, has been made to pay for the sins of his church and a media campaign of vilification.

He is a scapegoat, not a child abuser. In my opinion.

Declaration: I have met Pell perhaps five times in my life and like him. I am not a Catholic or even a Christian.

More Facebook posts by our local MP reviewed his favourite causes: rejecting that climate change is man-made, attacking environmental “cultists”, and supporting coal-fired energy.

He lightly flogged a leftist commentator, Peter Fitzsimons, as 'Pirate Pete' for his trademark bandana in The Sun-Herald and for his opposing views.

Success : Emissions reduced to zero !

THE EXTREME GREEN DREAM

Ok, now we've reduced our emissions to zero, closed down our steel, aluminium and cement manufacturing, stopped flying, taken every truck off the road, and culled the last cow - what's next ?

CHILD ABUSE : HARDCORE GREEN SOCIALISTS RADICALISING CHILDREN INTO THEIR CLIMATE CULT

Using lies and deception by omission , hardcore green socialists are indoctrinating young children, hoping to recruit them into their Climate Cult.

To achieve this, Australia's climate history has been banished from the school's curriculum - because history is the enemy of the climate alarmist. ... See more

CLIMATE FLASHBACK: REMEMBERING AUSTRALIA'S 'SAFE & STABLE' CLIMATE BEFORE COAL-FIRED POWER STATIONS

120 years ago today, the 4th March 1899, long before our first coal-fired power station was built, and at a time Alarmists believed that the climate was 'safe & stable' - the deadliest cyclone in Australia's history, Cyclone Mahina hit Bathurst Bay in Queensland killing between 307 and 410 people.

The 1899 Cyclone Mahina ranks among the most intense cyclones ever observed in t... See more

A LAND OF DROUGHT AND FLOODING RAINS - NOTHING HAS CHANGED

Pirate Pete, the bloke that wears a red hanky on his head, is upset that I quoted from Dorthea Mackeller's poem; 'My Country' - with the verse;

"I love a sunburnt country, a land of sweeping plains, of ragged mountain ranges, of droughts and flooding rains".

<https://www.smh.com.au/.../doubters-outcry-over-pell-verdict...>

For Pirate Pete is a card-carrying member of the Alarmists, deniers of the peer-reviewed science that demonstrates that when it comes to droughts and floods, little has changed since Dorothea Mackellar's days.

So while Pirate Pete huffs and puffs, denying Australia's climate history of the past two hundred years, and trying his best to avoid any debate on the facts - I'll stick with the evidence of over 100 years of rainfall data.

And the attached chart, should be displayed in every Australian classroom, with every child required to recite 'My Country' to help immunise them from the deceptive lies of the Climate Cultists.

ANOTHER BRAINWASHED DOOMSDAY CULT

Doomsday cults have been common throughout history - when the gullible, ignorant and weak minded are indoctrinated in a cult and exploited.

And despite the fact that a child born in into the world today, is born at a time when;

- * We have NEVER BEEN SO SAFE from extreme weather (droughts, floods, storms, famines, wildfires),
- * Life expectancies are the HIGHEST IN HUMAN HISTORY,
- * Fossil fuels and free markets have almost made FAMINES A THING OF THE PAST,

SOLAR MADNESS

Households will pay nearly $2 billion for rooftop solar installation subsidies this year, costing every home nearly $200 - added to their electricity bill.

This is madness, a Reverse Robin Hood - those that can't afford to install roof-top solar, are subsidising those that can - pushing electricity prices higher across the economy. See more
